

AQUATIC TECHNOLOGIES

The Mobitrac Aquatic Excavation Attachment

A floating excavator for underwater silt and sediment removal

The Mobitrac Aquatic Excavation Attachment is ideal of cleaning inflow and outflow sediment build ups from lakes, dams, canals, around bridges, around boat moorings and marinas.

The excavator attachment can be used to dig trenches for underwater cable laying or for the diversion of water flow.

Specifications

Dimensions

Digging Radius	6m
Digging Depth	2.2m
Weight of Arm	250kgs

The excavator attachment is supplied with 2 x stabiliser legs to stabilise the craft against the bottom sediment for safety and stability and is supplied as standard equipment.

Various sized mud and collection buckets are available.

